The Complaint alleges that the Committee failed to report any expenditures for a fundraiser held on May 28, 2015.² The Response, submitted by the Committee's campaign manager, states that the Committee incurred no expenses for the event because there were no attendees, no food costs, and no required rental or deposit costs for the venue.³

Based on its experience and expertise, the Commission has established an Enforcement Priority System using formal, pre-determined scoring criteria to allocate agency resources and assess whether particular matters warrant further administrative enforcement proceedings. These criteria include (1) the gravity of the alleged violation, taking into account both the type of activity and the amount in violation; (2) the apparent impact the alleged violation may have had on the electoral process; (3) the complexity of the legal issues raised in the matter; and (4) recent trends in potential violations and other developments in the law. This matter is rated as low priority for Commission action after application of these pre-established criteria. Given that low rating and the
